

“Sharing with indigenous minority people but without valuing their cultural identity and unaware of their rights to Effective Participation in any Decision Making Processes would mean to double our Guilt we cause to these peoples and would create a new form of poverty” - Tran thi Lanh - 1992

Development belief

Mekong context

- Value crisis and dilemma of existence
- Social disparity & poverty structure
- Biodiversity degradation & monoculture
- Environmental polluted & industrialization
- Indigenous Ethnic Minority is dependency
- Young generation identity is vulnerability
